Re: United States v. Andre Wilburn, No. 19-CR-139(RJD)

Defendant's Motion to Reveal the Deal and Incorporated Memorandum
 in Support (Letter-Motion)

Dear Judge Dearie:

Please construe this letter as a formal motion. The defendant, Andre Wilburn, moves this court to issue an order requiring the government to reveal any agreement entered between the United States Attorney's Office or any law enforcement agency and any prosecution witnesses, including co-accused Lamont Brown and Adam Micek, that could conceivably influence said witnesses testimony on the following grounds:

1. That the credibility of said witnesses, including Brown and Micek, will be an important issue in the principle case and the evidence of any understanding or agreement as to future prosecution or leniency of sentencing or culpability would be relevant to such witnesses credibility and if the trial jury would have been entitled to know it.

2. That a refusal to reveal any said agreements constitutes a violation of the "confrontation clause" of the Sixth Amendment of the United States Constitution. See Giglio v. United States,

405 U.S. 150 (1972)

Respectfully Submitted,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Andre Wilburn", written over a horizontal line.
